The image shows an interior wall with a decorative arrangement of wooden elements. At the top, there is a row of 14 small, rectangular wooden panels, each with a circular hole in the center, mounted on a white wall. Below this row is a structure made of horizontal wooden slats, which appears to be part of a larger wooden partition or screen. The lighting is soft, and the overall aesthetic is clean and modern. The text 'Sandeepika Interiors' is overlaid in a white, cursive font across the middle of the image.

A photograph of a two-story building under construction. The building has a white facade and a balcony with a reddish-brown metal railing. The ground floor is partially finished with green-painted walls. In the foreground, there is a brick wall made of red bricks, and some green plants are visible. The sky is blue with white clouds. The text 'Sandeepika Interiors' is written in a white, cursive font across the middle of the image.
